

Alexis Komselis

Director. AHEAD – ALBA Hub for Entrepreneurship and Development
ALBA Graduate Business School at The American College of Greece

Alexis is the co-founder and director of AHEAD - ALBA Hub for Entrepreneurship and Development at ALBA Graduate Business School at The American College of Greece. Alexis is an entrepreneurship and family business educator, researcher and practitioner with an expertise in business modelling and family business sustainability. He is currently teaching theoretical and experiential courses for the MSc in Entrepreneurship at ALBA, while leading relevant workshops and courses for ALBA's Executive Development. He has co-created and manages VentureGarden, a project supporting aspiring entrepreneurs, in Athens and Southern Greece. He has been involved in the research, teaching and celebration of entrepreneurship for several years, having managed the "Beyond Silicon Valley: Growing Entrepreneurship in Transitioning Economies" MOOC Project for Greece (videos available here), advised the Hellenic Entrepreneurship Association as a scientific collaborator for the selection process of the Kouros Awards for Entrepreneurship, managed the eponymous Stelios Haji-Ioannou Award for Young Entrepreneurs in Greece for the Stelios Philanthropic Foundation, and helped establish the Green Dreams Competition for sustainable entrepreneurship. Alexis led ALBA's participation in the global Successful Transgenerational Entrepreneurship Practices (STEP) project that explores the entrepreneurial process within business families and generates solutions that have immediate application for family leaders. He has published several articles in Greek and international newspapers, and has contributed to books related to his expertise. Alexis holds an MSc in Entrepreneurship and a PgCert in Research Methods.